

SUMMARY OF TIMAEUS

Introduction
Summary of Republic 369b–456e	3
The Atlantis story	7
Cosmology: The Work of Reason
Fundamental axioms	16
Science as no more than a likely account	17
The body of the universe	18
The soul of the universe	22
Time	25
The astral gods and their task (with an aside on the traditional gods)	28
The human soul, its disorderly movements, and reincarnation	30
The human body as a vehicle for the soul	35
Sight and hearing (with a digression on intelligent and unintelligent causes)	35
Cosmology: The Work of Necessity
The receptacle and the tripartite ontology	39
The construction of earth, water, fire, and air out of triangles	46
The interactions of earth, water, fire, and air	51
Different kinds of earth, water, fire, and air	53
Sensible properties and sensations, including pleasure and pain	58
Cosmology: The Work of Reason and Necessity
Body and soul in human beings (with a digression on divination)	67
The formation of bodily parts	72
The formation of plants	78
The digestive and respiratory systems (with a digression on some other phenomena)	78
Growth, wasting, and death	83
Physical and psychological maladies, and how to avoid them	84
Women and other creatures as reincarnated men	96
Conclusion	